

Crosby Elementary: 3rd Grade—suspension bridges

After reading Pop's Bridge, a historical fiction book about building the Golden Gate Bridge, the students then created their own suspension bridges. The focus of this project was the construction aspect—how to make the bridge sturdy enough.

